

BODY OF MAJ. MITCHELL WILL LIE IN STATE

NEW YORK CITY TO HONOR
IN UNUSUAL WAY DEAD
FORMER MAYOR.

New York, July 9.—The body of Major John Purroy Mitchell, army aviator, killed in Louisiana, was brought home today to a city which mourns in memory of him, its former mayor.

A great throng of citizens stood silently in the corridors of Pennsylvania station as the casket was borne from the train. Under police escort and accompanied by men who were his intimate friends in life, the body was removed to the home of the major's mother, Mrs. James Mitchell. There it will remain until taken tomorrow to the City Hall.

Mrs. John Purroy Mitchell accompanied her husband's body on the journey to New York, but she and the military escort were on the second section of the train and did not reach here until an hour after the body had arrived at Mrs. James Mitchell's home.

Among the many tributes which will make the funeral of Major Mitchell probably the greatest demonstration ever offered by the citizens of this city to the memory of one of her sons will be that paid by three squadrons of American aviators from the Hempstead field. The aviators, 20 in number, will drop roses on the casket of the former mayor as it passes up Fifth avenue Thursday afternoon from the City Hall to St. Patrick's cathedral.

The opportunity of the public to honor the dead officer will come tomorrow and Thursday while the flag draped casket lies in state in the rotunda of City Hall and thousands are expected to pass by the bier.

ITALIAN PATRIOT IS CONDEMNED BY AUSTRIAN COURT TO BE HANGED

Geneva, July 9.—Ferruccio Cirelli, aged 20, an Italian patriot, has been tried for high treason by an Austrian military court, found guilty, and condemned to be hanged, according to advices from Vienna.

Cirelli who was an irredentist, entered the Italian army as a volunteer at the beginning of the war. He fought bravely on the Carso plateau and along the Isonzo. During the recent offensive he was severely wounded and made prisoner. After his capture he was treated to every indignity, it is said.

On hearing his sentence, Cirelli shouted in court:

"Long live Italy!"

It is pointed out that his trial and execution is in violation of international law, as Cirelli never served in the Austrian army.

MURRAY A HEAVY WAR FUND GIVER

Ardmore friends of William H. Murray of Tishomingo, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, are much incensed over the report that has gone the rounds to the effect that Mr. Murray contributed only a small amount to the Red Cross fund. Inquiry has been made by Mr. Murray's friends here, which has elicited the following statement by Clyde Fanght, president of the Guaranty State Bank of Tishomingo and county manager in the Second War Fund Red Cross campaign for Johnson county:

"Replying to the statement that it has been charged that William H. Murray had failed to make the proper contributions to the war funds, and particularly to the Red Cross, and asking for the truth, I reply: We have proceeded generally on the two assessment plan. Mr. Murray has always more than met his assessments. In the recent Red Cross drive, of which I was county chairman, he subscribed double his quota, 4 or $100. I find, from the Rev. W. W. E. Garrison, who was county chairman for the Red Cross drive in December, Mr. Murray met his quota and gave the first check to that fund with in this county. He has also, in all the bond drives, subscribed his full quota. In the recent W. S. S. drive, which fell heavily on Murray school district, where his farm is located, because of the large number of tenant farmers there, he subscribed more than his quota—a total of $1,000.00, the limit allowed any one person. This I have from Will Brackguten, the chairman of that community.

"I may state that Mr. Murray had been instructed us not to make public his contributions, out of a sense of propriety as a candidate for governor, but he has since authorized us to state the truth, as we have herein, to all further inquiries."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

(The Ardmoreite submits in this column communications from the public. Those who submit matter to this department are requested to sign their names and addresses, which may or may not be printed. No anonymous communication.)

Editor The Ardmoreite:

As a non-resident taxpayer of the city of Ardmore, I believe I have a voice in the water proposition, now so generally discussed. The city, as I have been informed, has voted bonds to the amount of $300,000, for an additional water supply. I may have been misinformed, but I understood, after the report of Engineer Anderson, that the Henry House creek proposition was decided upon, with Hickory creek as an additional proposition; and that none other was being considered when the people were asked to vote an endorsement of the present city administration, in its quest for water, which the city of Ardmore must have, if it is to continue its progress. I have been informed that tonight, at the meeting of the mayor and the city commissioners, the engineers employed by the city, will make a report strongly in favor of the Hickory creek proposition and ignoring Henry House, because of the geological and topographical formation. Topographical, by reason of the fact that the possible watershed is not so great a shut at Hickory creek, and (hardly within the term) that difficulty would be encountered in obtaining right of way and that condemnation proceedings would be enforced through necessity.

In most of Eastern Oklahoma the formation is on what coal mining men call a "pitch." In other words, the rock formation does not lie flat. It will not hold water. The rock, the coal, the slate, all the formation beneath the surface of the ground, lies at an angle, or a pitch, of from 15 to 85 per cent. That kind of formation will not hold water.

This condition, well known, undoubtedly led men like Mr. Franklin and others, who appeared in the mass meeting to oppose the proposition, as to Henry House creek and Hickory creek for water for the city of Ardmore.

Barring this general proposition, and reverting to the incoming report of the engineers, as relating to leakage, as suggested in the mass meeting by Mr. Franklin, but it does look now, based on advance information, that the formation in Hickory creek is one that may be depended upon to hold the water. That stream is now flowing. With a dam across it, it would be only a few days until there would be impounded a volume of water for which the city might wait months to find above the dam to be constructed in Henry House creek, even were there no leaks. It would have to wait the pleasure of the weather clerk to send rain.

I fully realize that quantity as well as quality is what Ardmore is demanding. In fact, quantity has the call, if the city is going to maintain its industries.

From the most reliable information I can find, it will cost $800,000 to bring water from the Washita river. If Ardmore attains what I believe it will, it will have to have that water and the taxpayers of Ardmore will be compelled to vote bonds to that amount, but just now Ardmore has $300,000, and no more, with which to relieve the present situation, and I believe the Hickory creek proposition is the solution. I am giving these views for what they may be worth to you and the people of Ardmore. I do not live among you but I have some property here and have to pay my share of the taxes.

TWO YOUTHS ROB BANK AT WETUMKA

RUN AWAY WITH $3,703 BUT
ARE CAUGHT AFTER FAST CHASE.

Wetumka, Okla., July 9.—Forcing the bookkeeper into a vault at the point of a pistol, two youths yesterday rifled the First National Bank here and fled with $3,703 in cash.

They were captured after a chase and the money was recovered. The boys are now at the Hughes county jail at Holdenville and it is alleged their names are Robert Wilson of Omaha, Neb., and Jack Morgan of Sacramento, Cal.

The boys walked into the bank at 2:30 o'clock. Odie Vaughn, the bookkeeper, was ordered to get into the vault and the boys slammed the door. C. E. Jarrett, vice president, and Mrs. J. E. Jarrett, assistant cashier, were in a rear room when the boys appeared in the doorway and leveled revolvers at them. While one of the youths threatened them if they moved, the other seized all loose currency and crammed it in a bag.

The boys then dashed out the back door but met H. H. Holman, president. He could not stop them, but Jarrett and Vaughn, by this time free from the vault, pursued the boys, capturing one of them.

The chase ended at a half mile when the boy with the bag of money was overtaken by Hughie Rogers, deputy sheriff, and O. V. Arnold, city marshal. The boys offered no resistance after capture but would make no statement. Each gave his age as 16 years although they are thought older.

Ironical.

Milestones: "Yes, I was fined $200 for putting coloring matter in artificial butter."

"Well, didn't you deserve it?"

"Perhaps. But what made me mad was that the magistrate who imposed the fine had dyed whiskers."

WOULD WALK FLOOR HALF OF THE NIGHT

IN MISERY TWO YEARS BUT
TANLAC BRINGS RELIEF
AFTER EVERYTHING ELSE FAILED.

"Tanlac brought me relief after everything else failed to do me any good and I am a stronger and healthier woman today than I have been in a long time," recently declared Mrs. William R. Whitaker, of 1712 New York avenue, Fort Worth, Texas.

"My health was fine up to two years ago," she continued, "then my digestion failed. Everything I ate soured and felt like lead in my stomach, gas rose and pressed on my heart so I was afraid something was wrong with it. My liver was out of order, too, and I often had spells of dizziness. My head ached awfully and I would walk the floor half the night, too nervous to sleep. I had rheumatic pains in all my joints and my shoulders and hips would ache so I could hardly stand it and I became so despondent that I came near breaking down."

"One of my friends had been relieved by Tanlac and advised me to try it, so I started on it, also taking the Tanlac tablets and I soon felt the medicine was straightening me out. My appetite is now better than ever, my system is regular and the rheumatism is nearly all gone. My nerves are quieter, I sleep like a child and get up in the mornings feeling splendid. I can go on with my housework without tiring out, and am better in every way than I have been in two years."

Tanlac is sold in Ardmore by Coleman Drug Company and by leading druggists and dealers everywhere. (Adv.)
